Chasing wild rabbits, swimming, horse riding with my Mum, sailing with my friend George, walking with all my chums and posing in front of the camera. I LIKE BEING THE CENTRE OF ATTENTION

Dislikes.

Having my toe nails cut, being bathed for silly dog shows, having wet ears, fireworks and thunder

Education.

Obedience & Agility classes

Awards.

Lots of rosettes and trophies from dog shows Trophies for obedience

Career.

I have appeared in television adverts for Kelloggs, MTV and Channel 5. I starred in EastEnders and Down to Earth on ITV and a documentary about the stock market for BBC3. My latest achievement is gaining a part in televisions hit series The Bill.

Other Achievements. Qualified for RSPCA Scruffs final in 1999 which got me on the front page of my local paper and walked the catwalk for BHS at the London Fashion Show.

Why I want to be famous. Because I am a small dog with BIG personality. I am definitely not camera shy and Once you have met me you will see how fun I am.

Ambition.

To star in the next Walt Disney film or be directed by Steven Spielberg.
